In this groundbreaking book, Dr. Michael Reeves takes us on a captivating journey to uncover the true path of discipleship—the path that Jesus Himself walked.

Reeves masterfully weaves together biblical insights, historical accounts, and personal reflections to paint a vivid picture of the challenging yet transformative journey that every follower of Christ is called to undertake.

Through a series of thought-provoking chapters, Reeves delves into the heart of Jesus's teachings on surrender, self-denial, and cross-bearing, providing readers with a deeper understanding of what it truly means to live as a disciple.

Chapter 1: The Call to Surrender

In the opening chapter, Reeves explores the fundamental principle of surrendering our lives to Christ. He unpacks the implications of giving up our own agendas, desires, and control, and how this act of surrender is the foundation for a vibrant and meaningful relationship with God.

Chapter 2: The Discipline of Self-Denial

Building on the foundation of surrender, Reeves then examines the concept of self-denial. He reveals how Jesus's call to deny ourselves is not a form of self-punishment, but rather a necessary practice for breaking free from the tyranny of our own desires and growing in spiritual maturity.

Chapter 3: The Significance of Cross-Bearing

The most profound and challenging aspect of discipleship, according to Reeves, is the call to bear our cross daily. He explains how this involves not only enduring suffering and persecution but also embracing the challenges of living a life of obedience and sacrifice.

Chapter 4: The Path to Transformation

In the final chapter, Reeves outlines the transformative power of following Christ's path of surrender, self-denial, and cross-bearing. He highlights how these disciplines lead to a life marked by genuine joy, peace, and a deep connection with God.

With its engaging writing style, thought-provoking insights, and practical guidance, Following Christ Who Followed It First is an indispensable resource for anyone seeking to deepen their understanding of discipleship.
