

How to Leave the Law: A Guide to Escaping the Stress, Long Hours, and High Pressure

Are you a lawyer who's feeling burnt out, stressed, and overworked? You're not alone. According to a recent study by the American Bar Association, over half of all lawyers report feeling stressed and anxious about their jobs. And it's no wonder: lawyers work long hours, often under a lot of pressure. They're also constantly dealing with complex legal issues, which can be emotionally draining.

If you're thinking about leaving the law, you're probably wondering what your options are. The good news is, there are plenty of other careers out there that offer a better work-life balance, less stress, and more flexibility. This book will show you how to leave the law and find a new career that's a better fit for you.
