This series is not merely a collection of texts; it is an invitation to embark on an enlightening journey. Through the pages of these classics, you will encounter the profound teachings of Hinduism, Buddhism, Jainism, and Sikhism. You will delve into the nature of reality, explore the path to liberation, and discover the transformative power of spiritual practices.

Hinduism: The Ancient Vedas and Upanishads

Hinduism, one of the world's oldest religions, is a vast and multifaceted tradition. Its roots lie in the ancient Vedas, a collection of hymns and rituals that form the foundation of Hindu belief. The Upanishads, philosophical treatises composed between 800 and 500 BCE, expound on the nature of reality and the path to liberation.

In 'Light On The Indian World', you will find selections from these seminal texts that offer a glimpse into the profound wisdom of Hinduism. You will encounter the concept of Brahman, the ultimate reality, and explore the teachings of karma, rebirth, and moksha.

Buddhism: The Path of Enlightenment

Buddhism, founded by Siddhartha Gautama in the 6th century BCE, emphasizes the pursuit of enlightenment and the liberation from suffering. The Buddha's teachings, preserved in the Pali Canon, offer a practical guide to achieving inner peace and wisdom.

In 'Light On The Indian World', you will explore selections from the Dhammapada, a collection of verses attributed to the Buddha, and the Majjhima Nikaya, a vast collection of discourses. These texts provide profound insights into the nature of suffering, the Eightfold Path, and the ultimate goal of Nirvana.

Delve into the teachings of the Buddha and discover the path to enlightenment.

Jainism: The Path of Non-Violence

Jainism, an ancient Indian religion founded by Mahavira in the 6th century BCE, places paramount importance on non-violence and ethical conduct. Jains believe in the transmigration of souls and strive to achieve liberation through self-purification and spiritual practices.

In 'Light On The Indian World', you will find selections from the Agamas, the sacred texts of Jainism, and the Tattvartha Sutra, a philosophical treatise by the Jain scholar Umasvati. These texts offer a profound exploration of Jain cosmology, ethics, and the path to liberation.

Sikhism: The Path of Devotion

Sikhism, founded by Guru Nanak in the 15th century CE, is a monotheistic religion that emphasizes devotion to God, equality, and service to humanity. The Sikh scriptures, known as the Guru Granth Sahib, are revered as the living embodiment of the divine.

In 'Light On The Indian World', you will explore selections from the Guru Granth Sahib, which includes hymns, prayers, and philosophical teachings. These texts offer a glimpse into the Sikh worldview, the importance of meditation and selfless service, and the path to spiritual union with God.

Immerse yourself in the devotional teachings and spiritual practices of Sikhism.
