About the Book

The Armour of Rommel Afrika Korps Images of War is a stunning collection of photographs that captures the essence of the German Afrika Korps during World War II. The book features over 200 images, many of which have never been published before, and provides a unique glimpse into the lives of the men who fought in this legendary unit.

The Afrika Korps was one of the most elite and feared fighting forces of World War II. Led by the legendary Erwin Rommel, the Afrika Korps fought a brilliant campaign in North Africa against overwhelming odds. The unit's success was due in no small part to its superior equipment, which included the Panzer III and Panzer IV tanks.

The Armour of Rommel Afrika Korps Images of War provides a detailed look at the weapons and equipment of the Afrika Korps. The book features photographs of tanks, armored cars, artillery, and other vehicles. It also includes photographs of the men who fought in the Afrika Korps, as well as their uniforms and equipment.

The Armour of Rommel Afrika Korps Images of War is a must-have for any fan of military history. The book's stunning photographs and detailed text provide a unique glimpse into one of the most fascinating and iconic fighting forces of World War II.
